Classic facial usings Dr. Boos

Classic facial treatment according to Dr. Barbara Boos, which is specially tailored to your skin type. The treatment includes cleansing, deep cleansing, massage, wrap and final care.

Main focus of our treatments:

- Vitamin power

(Intensive skincare enriched with sea buckthorn essence and vitamins that improves blood circulation and revitalises the skin – for a luminous complexion.)

- Pomegranate care

(Pomegranate essences help mature skin protect its cells and noticeably soothe dry, irritated skin.)

- Pure moisture

(Rose petal extracts and a number of essential oils boost the skin's power to heal and balance out blemishes, irritations and reddening)

MASSAGE

Classical massage:

Muscles are loosened, tensions are released, energies are released, and complete well-being spreads throughout the body. Through kneading, stroking, and gentle tapping, not only does it increase blood circulation and ease muscle tension, but it also enhances physical well-being.

Classical massage promotes a relaxed start.

Full body massage 50 min - € 68,00

Partial body massage 25 min - € 40,00

Phyto Art – Pine activ

Feel nature directly on your body! This dynamic massage, performed with the special Swiss stone pine wood wands and herbal reactivating oil massage, has a rejuvenating and invigorating effect on the body. The aroma of the Swiss stone pine wood in the cushion frees and improves breathing, transmitting the feeling of taking a walk in the Swiss stone pine forests of South Tyrol.

Lymphostimulating massage

A special massage technique to stimulate and increase lymphatic circulation.

With gentle, relaxing movements, lymphatic flow is reactivated and congestion and swelling are relieved. Recommended for tired and heavy legs, edema and varicose veins.

50 min - € 68,00

Sports massage

Suitable for relieving any muscle tension. Excellent for technical sports activities. Classic massage strokes in combination with toning, staking and kneading strokes are used to massage specific muscle areas stressed by sports. This type of massage promotes regeneration of stressed muscles, relieves pain and improves mobility. It stimulates circulation and warms muscles without fatiguing them, ideal for starting a competition in top form. Long decontracting massage combined with passive stretching to promote the release of tensions accumulated through sports practice. Performed before sports activity, it helps increase performance. After training or sports, on the other hand, it has a defatiguing action.
50 min - € 75,00

Alpine Wellness

The use of arnica with precious essential oils, arnica and mountain pine fractions, and arnica and mountain pine balm combined with a long, relaxing massage allows the benefits of alpine herbs to be combined with deep massage manuals for a unique result. The body will feel light, rested and full of sparkling energy.

Phyto Art - Balance Anti Stress

Take time out and let yourself drift! The exquisite oil blend with grapefruit, orange and lemon balm helps to reduce stress, let go of everyday life and clear the mind. Special massage strokes, in combination with the Musk ointment made from local herbs, release blockages in the back and neck area and the use of various crystals stimulates the flow of energy and brings body and mind into balance.
50 min – € 68,00

Phyto Art - Silhouette

The areas on the body where we find cellulite are treated with a special scraping technique, with the fluoride wing, to increase blood circulation, as this is impaired in cellulite. Due to the increased blood circulation, more oxygen is transported to the cells and waste products are removed from the tissues. The active pack made of algae, elderberry, cornflower and sheeps yarrow stimulates the metabolism in the cells and supports their fat reduction. The final massage with Silhouette body lotion made of ivy and bearberry acts as an antioxidant and tightens the connective tissue.
